SHORE CLUB SOUTH BEACH
 MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA

The legendary Shore Club property, currently a 309-room hotel at 1901 Collins Avenue, is preparing for its next life as a luxury condominium and hotel. The nearly three-acre destination, which boasts a history of celebrity fueled sightings and restaurants, along with its famously photographed infinity pool, rooftop spa and direct beach access, will be transformed into approximately 75 elegant residences, many with oceanfront views, and 100 hotel rooms. Multi-award winning Brazilian architect and designer Isay Weinfeld, and celebrated landscape architect Enzo Enea have been appointed to revitalize the sophisticated indoor and outdoor spaces with their combined artistic vision. The Shore Club has long been a sought-after locale renowned for offering a luxurious, first-class hotel experience set against the backdrop of the beautiful Atlantic Ocean. Owning a beachfront residence at the Shore Club has already begun to excite the international jet set, as well as discriminating buyers with a passion for Miami Beach's incomparable lifestyle. The painstaking conversion of this iconic property ensures a future that is sure to rival its iconic past. For more information, call 305/695-3100.

ABOVE: Poolside scenes have been the emblem of South Beach ever since the destination first evolved into the American Riviera. The Shore Club, a landmark hotel with an historic allure, is soon to become a place to call home, and create new memories while recalling the glamour of a bygone era.
