

Enea is an international landscape architecture company with headquarters in Rapperswil-Jona, Switzerland as well as additional offices in Zurich, Miami and New York. With the opening of the world's first Tree Museum, we demonstrated our commitment to a diverse garden culture.

The unique Tree Museum and a well-stocked arboretum are part of our 7.5 hectare facility in Rapperswil-Jona. Enea has built a reputation for superior quality and our offices comprise of experts in all fields relating to landscape architecture who guarantee high standards from the design phase through to construction and maintenance.

Due to the expansion of our planning department in Rapperswil-Jona, we are currently seeking a

Landscape architect

Role and Responsibilities

- Assist with all aspects of project development including conceptual design, construction documents, construction details and construction administration
- Conduct research on various aspects of project development and prepare site review and analysis documents
- Preparation of presentation documents and drawing sets in coordination with the project manager
- Synchronization of the executed solutions / plans with the internal departments

Your Profile

- Bachelor's degree or Master's degree in Landscape Architecture
- Ability and interest to engage in all aspects of project development and design studio operations
- Demonstrated production of presentation quality graphics and renderings
- Demonstrated experience developing construction drawings and drafting details
- 2 - 3 years professional experience in German-speaking countries, Swiss experience an added advantage
- Written and verbal English skills, German would be an advantage
- Very good knowledge of MS Office, CAD (Autocad, Autocad Civil), Adobe programs and Photoshop
- Sound plant and construction expertise
- Creative, enthusiastic personality with precise working routines and willingness to work in a fast-paced and team-oriented environment

What we offer

- Participation in strong, interdisciplinary project teams with the opportunity to develop your own strengths
- The opportunity to be involved in our exclusive national and international projects
- Workplace in the midst of our beautiful park and unique tree museum
- Outstanding infrastructure and modern workplaces

Please send us your complete application with personal portfolio by post or e-mail to:

enea

Human Resources | Michèle Spörri
Enea GmbH | Buechstrasse 12 | 8645 Rapperswil-Jona
T +41 (0)55 225 55 06 | www.enea.ch | hr@enea.ch